

CONNECTICUT JOTTINGS.

EVENTS OF NOTE IN VARIOUS PARTS OF THE STATE.

A Boy Crushed to Death.—The Dr. Griswold Case.—Man Thrown Fifty Feet by a Train.

—A Seventh C. V. Man Killed by a Horse.

—Meriden Bicycle Meet.—A Raid Made in Cheshire.—Business Room in Wallingford.

—Crimes in Various Places.—Willingham Bank Dividend.—Hartford Hotel Man Dead.—An Old House With a Mystery.

Bridgeport, Aug. 27.—Edward Kennedy, thirteen years old, was caught between a freight car and a stone wall in Ansonia at 10 o'clock this morning and crushed so badly that he died within an hour. His parents live on Jersey street in Ansonia.

WILLIAMTIC BANK DIVIDEND

DECLARED.

Willingham, Aug. 27.—The receiver of the First National bank, which closed its doors several months ago, to-day declared a dividend of 15 per cent. on all deposits.

TOOK STRAMONIUM BY MISTAKE.

Hartford, Aug. 27.—Mrs. Ellen Kenney and her son, William Powers, of Martin street, had a narrow escape from being poisoned Monday evening. They took in mistake a dose of stramonium.

They were in a comatose condition when John J. Morrissey saw them. The doctor restored them to consciousness and today they were reported as being all right again.

WANTS HIS RAIL REDUCED.

Hartford, Aug. 27.—By agreement with State Attorney Eggleston the hearing on Dr. M. R. Griswold's application for a reduction of bail from $15,000 will be held next Monday. The hearing will be before Chief Justice Andrews, who has issued a writ of habeas corpus to Sheriff Smith to bring Dr. Griswold from jail.

A RAID ON CHESHIRE.

Meriden, Aug. 27.—Two residents of Cheshire representing the Law and Order league came to Meriden last evening and secured the services of Deputy Sheriff Duls, who, accompanied by Special Kelly, went to Cheshire and made a successful raid on Patrick Keough's place near the depot in West Cheshire.

In the absence of Prosecuting Agent

Bawyer the Cheshire parties engaged Attorney Hinman to draw up a search and seizure warrant.

Sheriff Duls and Officer Kelly captured three barrels of lager beer, a fifteen gallon jug of whiskey, two demijohns partly filled with whiskey and four bottles of gin. The confiscated goods were stored in Cheshire until the trial comes off.

About two weeks ago Sheriff Duls visited Keough's place and at that time found only a quart bottle of gin. Sheriff Duls went to Cheshire this afternoon to arrest Keough for selling without a license. It is reported that a hearing on this will be held to-morrow. The civil process will be tried before Justice Beadle on September 3 at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Law and Order league in Cheshire have engaged a New Haven lawyer to prosecute to-morrow, while Attorney Hinman will also go over later in the day to assist in the prosecution.

DARING BURGLARY IN NEW BRIT-AIN.

New Britain, Aug. 27.—A daring burglary was committed at the home of Steve Sevic at 608 North Main street at an early hour this morning. A burglar affected an entrance through a window, picked up Mr. Sevic's trousers and went out in the yard with them.

The garment was searched and $18.00 was found in the pockets.

The burglar evidently thought that there was more money in the house, as he left the trousers in the yard and went back into the building and renewed his search.

He awakened the occupants of the room this time, but succeeded in making his escape.

ASSAULTED SIXTEEN-YEARS-OLD

MARY WALLACE IN ESSEX.

Essex, Aug. 27.—Mary Wallace, daughter of H. J. Wallace of this place, was the victim of an attempted assault at the hands of George Bond, a well known character, last night at about 7

BUSINESS IN THE WALLINGFORD

FACTORIES IS IMPROVING EVERY DAY.

Wallingford, Aug. 27.—The autumn boom in business has set in unusually early this year. For some time the factories of the New York Insulated

Wire company have been operated night and day.

The R. Wallace & Sons' company is behind in their orders and it is thought will be found necessary to run nights in order to fill orders.

Simpson, Hall, Miller & Co., who have been running on short time almost continuously since the panic in 1893, are now working on full time and full handed.

The Simpson Nickel company is rushing and the full complement of hands is working twelve hours a day.

Prominent business men say that the indications for the coming fall are encouraging.

MRS. JEANETTE BARNES.

Meriden, Aug. 27.—Jeanette, wife of Fred W. Barnes of Eden avenue, Southington, died at her home at 6:15 this morning, after a ten days' illness with dysentery, which developed typhoid symptoms.

Mrs. Barnes was a Forestville lady, Jeanette Eddy Douglass, and had resided in town since her marriage.

She was fifty-two years of age. Besides a husband she leaves one son, Eddy C. Barnes of this city, who is just now on the road for E. Miller &

Co.

Telegrams are being sent to find him, but as yet they have been unsuccessful.

For that reason the funeral has not been set. Burial will be in the South End cemetery.

STRUCK BY A TRAIN.

Stafford Springs, Aug. 27.—At Orcutt-ville, a small village, about two miles east of Stafford Springs, M. H. Clark, an employee of Bidwell & Co., market-men, while driving his meat team across Orcuttville crossing, was struck by a southbound train this morning and thrown fifty feet, striking on his head, causing a severe scalp wound.

He was also injured about the arms and badly shaken up. The horse was instantly killed. The people who saw the accident say that the engine whistle did not blow in time to give Clark warning.

INJURIES FATAL.

Hartford, Aug. 27.—Lorin Lord, proprietor of the Adams hotel, died at 5 o'clock this morning. Mr. Lord had been ill quite for three weeks, and his death was not entirely unexpected.

THE CHEDSEY MEMORIAL.

Hartford, Aug. 27.—Nathan A. Ched-sey, a native of Durham, who died in New York last week, left $7,000 to the First Ecclesiastical society of Durham;

$5,000 as the Chedsey memorial, the income to be applied to the payment of the pastor's salary, and $2,000 for the care of the cemetery and family lot.

NEW ROADMASTERS.

Winsted, Aug. 27.—J. Farrell of May-brook, N. Y., and W. Beard of Poughkeeps have been appointed roadmasters of the Philadelphia, Reading and

New England road, vice G. W. Sullivan and W. F. Barry, resigned.

MERIDEN WHEEL CLUB'S BICYCLE

RACE.

All arrangements for the big bicycle race of the Meriden Wheel club at Meriden, Saturday, September 7, have been completed, and aside from the Hartford and Springfield meets it will be expected, be the largest in New England this season. Among the entries are Bald, Cabonne, Titus, Mc-Donald and the other fast riders in class A and three class B men and will include the best riders in this sections. The prizes valued at $1,200 are the richest ever given in Meriden, many of them being taken from designs and are donated from the big silver manu-brook road. The fire was seen from several of the surrounding towns, but it was not generally known that the "Deserted Inn" had been burned until Monday.

WALLINGFORD.

There was a fair sized attendance at the races of the Connecticut Central Circuit association on the East Center street track yesterday afternoon. The winner of the 2:27 class were first, Wobbling Mill of Bridgeport, who took three straight heats; Brownstone, Willingham, second; Dynamite, New Haven, third. Time, 2:26 1/4, 2:28 1/4, 2:28 1/4.

F. L. Taylor, driver of Brownstone, was fined $10 for improper driving.

The 2:30 class was not so one sided, and required six heats to decide the winner. Hallett of New Haven won first and second, N.E. Ingraham's Star-mount took third, fourth and sixth heats; Elsie Card of Plantsville won fifth heat. Starmount took first money, Hallett, second; Elsie Card, third.

Time, 2:31 1/4, 2:34, 2:32 1/4, 2:34, 2:33, 2:34.

The 2:32 and 2:50 classes will be trotted this afternoon.

The wedding of Charles G. Phelps and Miss Jennie Judd, daughter of E. M.

Judd, is announced to occur on Thursday, August 1.

Nicholas Camp, an employee of the iron bedstead department at H. L.

Judd & Co. works was badly burned about the arm and face by hot metal yesterday afternoon.

Henry Morris is home from Denver,

Col.

A. B. Pixley and family start to-morrow for the White mountains.

"My Aunt Sally" will be the attraction at the opera house this evening.

O. B. Lane will attend the drummers' convention in Meriden to-day.

Malby, Stevens & Curtis company's factory is running ten and one-half hours a day.

Charles E. Hill of Hartford, who was thrown from a carriage in Hartford

Monday night died yesterday morning.

The deceased formerly resided here and is a half brother of George O.

Webb. For several years past he had been in the lively business in Hartford, and is estimated as being worth fully $15,000.

A youth known as "Bill Nye," had one of his fingers smashed under a press at Malby, Stevens & Curtis Co.'s factory yesterday.

Moonlight parties on the lake are again in order.
